NEW LONDON COUNTY DELEGATES

George L. Fox Believes Evidence Against 6 to 12 will be Secured in Short Time.

George L. Fox, of New Haven, is recently pursuing his search after evidence of corrupt practices at the republican convention, and said Monday that he believed that "within ten days satisfactory evidence will come that from six to twelve delegates from New London county received large sums of money for changing their votes."

Mr. Fox said:
"I spent a tedious Sunday yesterday, trying to find evidence of corrupt practices in eastern Connecticut, and especially in proving the truth of the statement that $1,000 had been seen to pass from one man to another in order to change his vote."

"I saw the two men on whose authority the story was published, who heard the man who was present at the convention make the statement. They both confirmed the story as reported."

"I then went with one of them and saw the man who made the statement.
He admitted practically all the story, except that there was a difference as to the identity of the man who said the money passed and as to the amount. He then told other things of other corrupt use of money which I had not known."

"When questioned further he refused to talk, but said he would tell all he knew of a proper officer of the law, whom I mentioned. I put him in touch by telephone with that proper officer and he made an appointment to meet him and tell all he knew."

RUMORED SALE OF NORWICH & WESTERLY ROAD

Senator Brandegee, Receiver, Knows Nothing Regarding It.

Among the employees of the Connecticut company in New London Monday it was rumored that the company had purchased the Norwich & Westeryly Electric Railway Co. The Connecticut company's men could not say where the rumor originated, but thought it was possible in view of things they had heard that such a sale would be made.

Senator Brandegee, who is receiver for the Norwich & Westeryly road, explained how improbable it was that the road had been sold. First, Senator Brandegee said, he as receiver knows nothing about a contemplated sale of the road. Secondly, the fate of the road is in the hands of the United States District Judge Walter C. Noyes on a motion for foreclosure, and when the court decided that the road might be sold, the sale would be Norwich & Westeryly road. Senator Brandegee said he had not been informed that Judge Noyes had rendered any decision on the motion to foreclose.

HAILE CLUB'S CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW.

Held at Ghanbouer With Hundreds Attending—Beautiful Show of Fall Flowers.

The chrysanthemum show opened by the Haile club on Monday afternoon and evening at Ghanbouer, the residence of Mrs. William C. Lannan, on Washington street, attracted hundreds of visitors and patrons between the hours of 2 and 6 and 8 and 10, making an exceptionally beautiful showing of these splendid fall blooms and other choice flowers from the Ghanbouer greenhouses. Those attending found a floral exhibit of noteworthy loveliness which will no doubt prove an attraction for yet many more visitors this afternoon and evening, which are the closing hours of the show.

The flowers were all shown in the stable in two rooms, while Mrs. Lan-nan's residence was thrown open for the social and musical programme in connection with the show. In charge of the flowers was Miss Grace S. Benjamin, the club directress, assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Frank Tracy and Miss Minnie Cadden, and in the evening by the following ladies: Mrs.
Misses Ruth Jordan, Mary Dunderdale, Ella Kirby, Margaret Petrona, Gladys Upton, Nellie Foley and Caroline Woodward. Miss Mary Duvell was cashier and Frank Maynard ticket taker.

On tables around the sides of the two rooms were arranged the magnificent prize chrysanthemums, the same with which Gardener Charles T. Beaseley had made such a prize winning show at the Hartford show last week.
Mingled with these were beautiful carnations, roses, violets, celestial peppers and Jerusalem cherries, while two small round tables were attractively arranged with proteas, evergreens and ferns.

The champion chrysanthemums included the following named varieties, all remarkable for size, foliage and perfection of blooms: Glenview, bronze, Merza, pure white, J. C. Neal, sable yellow, Ontario, large white, Reginald Vallis, magenta; Mary Mason, rosy bronze; Col. Appleton, yellow; C. H. Tolley, chestnut; R. F. Es-ton, deep yellow; Ontario, large white; Pockets' crimson; P. S. Vallis, large yellow; Mrs. Henry Partridge, crimson and gold; Rosebush, white, small or, and Nellie Pickett, white. Mr. Bease-ley's orchestra played during the flower show at the stables. None of the big bouquets were sold, but were taken away on Monday, but many orders were looked so that visitors to the show on Tuesday will see the flowers. Tuesday evening Miller's orchestra played in a barn dance, to which the club members will come in rustic costume.

At Mrs. Lannan's residence afternoon tea was served in the dining room from 3 to 6 o'clock. Here the decorations were especially dainty, the prevailing colors being white and green, and white chrysanthemums with silver shaded candelabra on the tea table. Miss Mary Richards and Mrs. Daniel S. Haviland poured.
Miss Lida Caley was in charge in the dining room, assisted by the following members of the club: Misses Nellie Mason, Marion, Jennie Kimball, Marion Bartlett, Helen Galt, Minnie Freeman, Ruth Ruch, Alice Mc-Nelly, Agnes Malone, Martha Holcomb, M. Manning, Mrs. Luella Matthews, Misses May Riddan, Carrie Terpin, Sarah Sexton, Sarah Kelly, Katharine Nolbert, Eleanor Walsh and Maud Au-bray.

The reception committee for Monday evening comprised Mrs. William Campman, Mrs. Charles B. Lee, Miss Louise Hare, Mrs. Friday L. Barrell, Miss Minnie Cadden, Miss Leda Roark, Miss Alice Stephenson, Miss Mary Kane, the president of the club, and Miss Jessie Grier, club ex-president.
In the small reception room at the right of the front door was the homemade candy table with attractive boxes in charge of Miss Susan L. Gallup, and Miss Isabel C. Murphy took the tickets at the door.

During the evening a musical programme was finely rendered in the rearior, consisting of selections by the Haile club choral class of twenty members, directed by Mrs. M. J. Jackson. They were accompanied by the Haile club orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Danahy, the organist. The programme was beautifully in their rendering of the following numbers: Santa Lucia, All Through the Night, and a Southern Daisy song.

For the evening the cloistered walk from the house to the stable was illuminated, making a pretty effect with electrically lighted Japanese lanterns.
With each admission ticket went a coupon entitling the holder to a cup of tea and there was also a lucky number given for a chance at the prizes offered as prizes. Ticket No.
177, held by Miss Elizabeth Wilson, took a bowl of Chinese tulips; ticket No. 125 took a dish of ferns, and ticket No. 10 a big chrysanthemum. The holders of these two tickets did not appear Monday night to claim their prizes. Three more prizes will be astowed this evening.

A Hearty Eater.

There is a story in the French army of a captain who made a wager one day that a drummer of his company could eat a whole calf. The drummer, proud of his distinction, promised to do honor to the captain's compliment. Accordingly a calf was prepared in various appetizing ways and was being promptly disposed of by the drummer. When he had finally consumed about three-quarters of the repast he paused for another draft of wine and, placing his knife and fork on his plate, said to his superior officer, "You had better have the calf brought on, had you not, for all these little kickshaws you are serving will end in taking up room."

Bridal Customs in Spain.

In Spain a bride has no girl attendants to stand at the altar with her, but instead a "madrina," or godmother.
Neither does she have a wedding cake nor any festive going away after the ceremony. The wedding pair depart quietly to their new home, where they remain until the following day, when they start on their honeymoon. Before departing they pay a formal visit to their respective relatives.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

The four vaudeville acts which opened the week on Monday at the Auditorium were of the highest quality, which indicated a bill that would make good in the popular favor.
Goodrich & Lingham in Letty, which they call a new comedy sketch, are topliners as far producers, in which Miss Lingham does her part in her clever appearance in three characters and costume changes.

A pleasing combination of song, dancing and comedy is shown by Val and Little Newman, who make a bit with their frolic and sailor songs and dances. There is also big applause for Coroboni and Hall, two Italian operatic singers, who render the Toscanini song and also combine in their repertoire a tambourine dance, cassini dance and butterfly dance with splendid effects. Their turns are all good ones.

Tennessee Hall, that southern girl, is a coon shouter of ability, and the moving pictures present a diverting line of subjects, but see that you see the features to the pleasing film.
Among the slides was one announcing election returns tonight.
